Coups de Cœur*: American Library in Paris Book Award

Five exceptional new books about France have been selected as “coups de cœur” in the runup to the 14 January announcement of the 2020 American Library in Paris Book Award winner. The coups de cœur were selected from the seventy-seven submissions by the award’s screening committee as having special merit. They are available for checkout at the Library.

The Art of Resistance, an extraordinary wartime memoir of a young French resistant during Nazi occupation, Justus Rosenberg, now an American citizen of 99.

Becoming Beauvoir, a commanding portrait of France's leading woman of ideas by British philosopher Kate Kirkpatrick.

The Loneliest Band in France, a perceptive novella narrated by a Sri Lankan student in Toulouse, swept up in the musical and drinking scene, by Dylan Fisher.

A New World Begins, a rich new history of the French revolution by American historian Jeremy D. Popkin.

The Seine, a passionate exploration, in time and space, of the great French river by Paris writer Elaine Sciolino.

SAVE THE DATE:

The six 2020 Book Award finalists were announced in July, and more information about them may be found on the Library website. The winner will be revealed in a special live online event on 14 January 2021. Register online and join us for this sparkling event.

Holiday Gift Guide

LIBRARY GIFT MEMBERSHIP:

A Library membership is the gift that keeps giving all year long. You can register online for a Library membership for your household, or contact our Member Services team to purchase a membership for a friend: info@americanlibraryinparis.org.

2020 BOOK AWARD SHORTLIST AND COUPS DE CŒUR:

If you're like us, you think books make the best gifts. Even better? Receiving a title from the 2020 Book Award Coups de Cœur list or the shortlist from which a winner will be chosen on 14 January. (If you're in Paris, consider purchasing from a local independent English-language bookshop: The Red Wheelbarrow and The Abbey Bookshop each accept orders by phone and email. Shakespeare and Company offers a "Call & Collect" service.)

SPONSOR A BOOK SHELF:

As the American Library in Paris celebrates its centennial, we are expanding the Children's Library and Teen Mezzanine and adding a group study room and atelier. Donors may sponsor a shelf in the new space in honor of a friend or family member. Your 500€ sponsorship will be recognized with a commemorative plaque with the name of your honoree. Please contact the Library's Advancement Coordinator Morgan Wurzburger at wurzburger@americanlibraryinparis.org to find out more about sponsoring a book shelf.

LIBRARY TOTES, MUGS, AND T-SHIRTS:

Consider the gift of Library swag this holiday season. Tote bags from the American Library in Paris are perfect for Library visits and grocery runs. Our mugs are just what you need to enjoy a cozy cup of hot chocolate with a good book. And our organic cotton t-shirts show the world that you support the Library. Visit the Library today to pick up gifts for everyone on your list.

Programs for Adults

All programs, including book groups, workshops, and Evenings with an Author sponsored by GRoW @ Annenberg, will continue virtually for the present time.

Evenings with an Author: Dr. Maurice Samuels

Tuesday 8 December at 19h30 via Zoom

Join us for a book talk on The Betrayal of the Duchess: The Scandal that Unmade the Bourbon Monarchy and Made France Modern. The year was 1832, the French royal family was in exile, and the Duchesse de Berry—the mother of the eleven-year-old heir to the throne—hatched a plot to restore the Bourbon dynasty. Her betrayal by her trusted advisor, the son of France's Chief Rabbi, became a cause célèbre for Bourbon loyalists and ignited a firestorm of hate against France's Jews.

Free and open to the public via Zoom.

RSVP required to receive meeting details and password.

Evenings with an Author: Kristen Richardson

Wednesday 9 December at 19h30 via Zoom

We invite you to discover The Season: A Social History of the Debutante. Author Kristen Richardson traces the social seasons of debutantes on both sides of the Atlantic. Originally conceived as a way to wed daughters to suitable men, debutante rituals have adapted and evolved as marriage and women's lives have changed. The Season reveals the complex emotional world of the girls at its center.

Free and open to the public via Zoom.

RSVP required to receive meeting details and password.

Evenings with an Author: Amor Towles in conversation with Mark Mayer

Wednesday 16 December at 19h30 via Zoom

Please join us for a special conversation with author Amor Towles (moderated by Mark Mayer) about writing, inspiration, and his hugely popular novel, A Gentleman in Moscow. Published in 2016 and on the New York Times bestseller list for over a year while in hardcover, it was named as one of the best books of 2016 by the Chicago Tribune, the Washington Post, the Philadelphia Inquirer, the San Francisco Chronicle, and NPR.

Free and open to the public via Zoom.

RSVP required to receive meeting details and password.

Programs on our Podcast, Facebook, and YouTube

Past programs on YouTube, including Peter Gumbel in conversation with Charles Fleming, Scott Carpenter in conversation with Erin Byrne, and an Evening with Judy Collins and Sara Somers.

Upcoming virtual events by the Library's partner Pandemonium U:

"The invention of the modern Frenchwoman," with author Rachel Mesch, in conversation with Pamela Druckerman

Friday, December 11 @ 9:30 am Pacific / 12:30 NY / 18:30 Paris

*please note that this program begins 30 minutes later than the usual start time

In the late 19th and early 20th centuries, Frenchwomen began to write and publish in record numbers. Some even began dressing in men's clothing and adopting an early form of transgender identity. Rachel Mesch is the author of Before Trans: Three Gender Stories from Nineteenth-Century France, which is shortlisted for the upcoming American Library in Paris Book Award.

"Is Narendra Modi the Indian Trump?" with Ramachandra Guha, in conversation with Simon Kuper

Friday December 18 @ 10am New York/15:00 London/16:00 Paris/20:30 Indian Standard Time

*Please note that we have departed from our usual class time to accommodate an Indian audience

When Narendra Modi became Indian prime minister in 2014, he departed aggressively from Mahatma Gandhi's vision of India, as a country where people of all faiths and ethnicities could live together in peace. Is Modi attempting to dismantle multicultural India? And could he also dismantle the world's largest democracy? Historian and author Ramachandra Guha explains the implications for India.
